TRACK IS BAD AT LATONIA

COURSE IN WORSE CONDITION THAN PREVIOUSLY DURING PRESENT MEETING.

Handy and Marian Casey Score as Favorites—Veneta Strome Runs Especially Disappointing Race—Brave Beats Sir Giles in Stirring Finish.

Cincinnati, O., June 19.—Track conditions at Latonia today were worst of the meeting. Marian Casey and Handy were the only winning favorites. Veneta Strome was the greatest disappointment of the afternoon. She was in with an ordinary band, and after showing some early speed she quit and finished far in the rear. The winner turned up in Highdown. A stirring struggle marked the running of the fourth race. Brave last lasting to beat Sir Giles. Gates and Captain Bravo were most esteemed in the race, but the latter suffered interference and his chances were thereby destroyed. Gates ran as if he disliked the going. Crossover showed an improved performance in winning the fifth race, for which Feather Duster was favorite. In the closing race B. Steele outgeneraled J. Henry and won with Handy. The opener enabled Thomas Fortune Ryan's Nelly Agnes to graduate from the maiden class. The much-heralded Volita, by Voeur—Chulita, owned by A. S. Latow, made her debut in this race. She ran promisingly for half a mile, then retired as if short.

The judges suspended jockey Allen for the remainder of the meeting for rough riding in the fourth race. Jockey Byrne was added to the suspended list, the starter giving him three days for disobedience at the post.

Steeplejack, as a result of being cut down in the last race yesterday, was destroyed. W. J. Sperry will rest all the horses under his charge at the close of the local meeting until the resumption of racing in Kentucky next fall.

Capt. P. M. Walker will ship all his horses at the close of the Latonia meeting to Fort Erie to engage in the racing there. Henderson & Hogan will send a consignment of racers to Salt Lake at the close of the meeting here. They added Mollie Richards to their string before the opening dash and she ran as the favorite in this afternoon. Jockey Estep piloted two of the afternoon's winners. J. Henry landed one winner and figured in two other close finishes.

Today's attendance was remarkably large, considering the unfavorable weather.

The mayor of Covington and a delegation from the Young Men's Commercial Club were at the course to witness the running of the Covington Annual Race, run as the first race, to which they donated a handsome silver cup.

Charles F. Price and John Hachmeister will be among those to go to Fort Erie to witness the running of the Canadian Derby. Mr. Hachmeister will return to Lexington for law attendance at the meeting of the Kentucky State Racing Commission July 1. It is expected that the dates for the full meetings at the different Kentucky tracks will be allotted at that time.

Many of the owners would like to ship to Fort Erie, but the scarcity of stable room will cause a change in their plans and force them to ship to Windsor to await the opening of the summer meeting there.

It is said that the rule advocated by Fred A. Forsythe relative to run-up money in selling races, the sums to be used as a fund to be pro-rated as added money to the usual purse offerings, will be adopted at the next meeting of the Kentucky State Racing Commission. There will also be a supplementary rule, it is said, allowing any one to demand that any of the beaten horses be offered for sale, the same as the winner. It is supposed that the passing of the rule will have a tendency to prevent the entering of horses below their real value.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

J. J. B., South Chicago. See reply to H. M. R. J. G., Chicago. The wager on Royal Tea in race 3065 lost.

F. A., Oak Park, Ill. Not possible with present space to print full charts of Oklahoma.

Z. H., Nashville, Tenn. The bet on Manager Mack was a draw, the race having been declared off.

E. J., Chicago. The place bet on Bottles in race 3045 was a win. Yes, the field horses would all have run for you.

Fred H., Chicago. Warner Griswell opened and closed at 6 to 1 straight, 2 to 1 place and 6 to 5 show at Marlboro, June 15.

J. L., Chicago. Rinda was not entered in the seventh race at Marlboro, June 12. She was in the sixth race, but was scratched.

O. M., Chicago. At Marlboro, June 12, Hannah Louise opened at 8 to 5 and closed at 8 to 5, 4 to 3 and 2 to 1. Smirk opened at 2 to 1 and closed at 2 to 1, 1 to 2 and 1 to 6.

H. M. R., South Chicago. Colin was never beaten. He never started in a race in England. The horse that fell was Sir Martin, who fell at Tattenham Corner while running in the Epsom Derby.

T. R. D., Latonia, Ky. This paper does not accept advertisements with initials for address or without general identification. Money cannot be returned to an address to "general delivery" under initials. Send money for return of money.

L. J. H., Cleveland, O. The parlay to win on Brig and Royal Tea for place won as a single bet on Brig, being void as to Royal Tea because there was no separate place price against him. The parlay on Royal Tea to win and Brig was lost. The place parlay on Royal Tea and Brig won on Brig and was void on Royal Tea. The return due you is $57.

INDIAN JOCKEY IN GOOD FORM.

Oklahoma City, Okla., June 19.—Ideal weather brought out a large crowd for today's races. S. Johnson, the Indian jockey, carried off the riding honors by piloting two winners. Jockey E. Smith was suspended for two days by the judges for rough riding in the sixth race. Frazzle tried to run out of the stable gate on the backstretch, but for which she probably would have won. R. B. Allen, owner of Litholia, claimed Clara W. out of the first race for $250. W. J. Honek put in a claim in the last race for the intention of claiming Lajole, but failed to state the horse's name and the claim was declared void. The track is drying out rapidly and indications are that it will be good tomorrow.

MEADOW WINS KOOTENAY HANDICAP.

Spokane, Wash., June 19.—The Kootenay County Handicap, an one-mile, today fell to Meadow, an odd-on choice. She ran close up with the leaders until straightened away in the stretch, where she drew out to win easily. In the two-year-old dash, Pan Zareta won after slight urging in the stretch. Jockey Burlington was suspended for a week by the starter and Rooney for four days for being over anxious at the post in the fourth race.

BARTON STEEPLECHASE TO THE WELKIN.

William Garth Saddles Winner of Hamilton Stake Race—Guy Fisher Takes a Handicap.

Hamilton, Ont., June 19.—William Garth saddled his first winner of the Hamilton meeting when he sent The Welkin to the post today in the Barton Steeplechase. The Welkin, fencing in her usual brilliant style and showing fine speed, made a show of her opposition and won in a canter by fifty lengths from Prince Hampton. Be Thankful and Rhugmaster, the two other starters, fell at the first jump.

In the Grimsby Handicap, Guy Fisher showed a good performance. He came from behind on the stretch turn and won easily from Cliff Edge. The mile and a sixteenth was run in 1:45½, within two-fifths of a second of the track record.

Sal Volatile, winner of the fourth race, was bid up $300 over her entered price of $200 by William Walker, but was retained by her owner. The Beverwyck Stable has secured first call on the apprentice G. Willis. The latter rode for H. A. Cotton at Jurez last winter. Willis had his first mount here on Colonel Holloway in the Grimsby Handicap this afternoon.

C. H. Pettigall was a visitor here this afternoon and was a guest of the stewards. He will remain for a few days.

J. L. Connell, one of the directors of the Hamilton Jockey Club, and promoter of the London Jockey Club, reports that work will be started on the proposed track at London early next spring, with the intention of having it completed in time for a mid-summer meeting.

There were forty entries for the fourth race tomorrow and twenty were thrown out.

The Canadian Racing Association, at its recent meeting, passed a rule which limits the number of races that may be given by tracks under the jurisdiction of the association to seven.

Judge Joseph A. Murphy, who is acting as presiding steward here, reports good progress on the track now under construction near St. Louis. It is the intention of the club to hold a big State Fair in September and they have already joined the strong Northwestern Trotting Association. Races for the summer will also be provided and a big race patterned after the Kentucky Endurance Stakes will be run. It is the intention to make this fixture valuable enough to attract the attention of the most important stables in the country.

Ocean Bound, the Star Shoot mare that Woodford Clay brought from Kentucky a couple of weeks ago, showed a sensational trial over the Hamilton track this morning. She was sent to the track in preparation for the National Handicap to be run on Saturday and covered the distance in 1:51½. The fractional time of the trial was: 23, 35, 47½, 1:00, 1:12, 1:25, 1:38½, and 1:51½. Mr. Clay has been asked to name a price on the mare by two persons, one of whom is a prominent Canadian turfman, but up to date no transfer has been made.

Dr. R. W. McNally and James Rowe, of New York, have been among the visitors here. Racing in Canada is not new to Dr. McNally, who is a graduate of the Ontario Veterinary College, but it is Mr. Rowe's first time and he is delighted to observe the course and its appointments, as well as the racing and the attendance. As trainer for James R. Keene and other leading owners, Mr. Rowe prepared many of the greatest horses of any period in the history of the American turf, just as he is in charge of Mr. H. Whitney's enormous establishment, where last fall some hundred yearlings were gone over, and the choicest sent to England and France. Last week he shipped eight of the progeny of Broomstick, Hamburg, Peter Pan and Hippodrome to trainer Joyner in England. About $30,000 worth have been sold this year in the United States and Canada, and he has more than a score now preparing for the market. Mr. Rowe's farm is the Brookdale Farm tonight. He will shortly take up the Whitney yearlings and try them out for the purpose of selecting those that will go to A. J. Joyner in England.

The track at Hamilton this morning was in better condition than on Friday since the meeting began and some fast trials were shown, including the following: Anafit—Three-quarters in 1:16. Brelay—Half mile in 49. Cadogan—Half mile in 48½. Can Canoe—Three-quarters in 1:16. Farrier—Five-eighths in 1:01½. Federal—Five-eighths in 1:02½. Gont—Three-quarters in 1:11. Garrard—Three-quarters in 1:06. Jack Deunan—Three-quarters in 1:18. Jenny Geddes—Three-quarters in 1:16½. King Avondale—Three-quarters in 1:17. Light of M. L.—Half mile in 50. Love Watches—Five-eighths in 1:01½, and pulled up three-quarters in 1:15. Lysander—Five-eighths in 1:02½. Mud Sill—Half mile in 1:43. Paton—Seven-eighths in 1:20½. Pike's Peak—Half mile in 48½. Reybonn—Half mile in 50. Rock View—Five-eighths in 1:01½. Sam Bank—Seven-eighths in 1:31. Senator Sparks—Three-quarters in 1:15½. Spin—Three-quarters in 1:15½. Spring Maid—Five-eighths in 1:01½. Supervisor—Seven-eighths in 1:31. Tiger Boy—Three-quarters in 1:16½. Wood Dove—Three-quarters in 1:16.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Mrs. Eugene Foss, wife of the governor of Massachusetts, was the prominent society folk in attendance at the Country Club's races at Brookline, Mass., Monday.

The trial of Paul Shane on a charge of book-making was again postponed when the case came before Justice of the Peace Charles E. Gittens, at Hempstead, L. I., Tuesday. The prosecution was not ready to proceed and Justice Gittens continued the case until July 2.

J. Greer Chapman of Montreal, whose colors were first seen at the recent Blue Bonnets meeting, means to go into racing on an extensive scale, and will go across the water for the material. He intends to import about $20,000 worth of thoroughbreds. Being Irish, Mr. Chapman is an admirer of steeplechasing, and that branch of the sport in Canada will particularly benefit by the accession of such a stable as he proposes to establish.

A. B. Spreckels, the noted California millionaire and breeder, has sent the following names of two-year-olds to the Jockey Club at New York for registration: Anafit, chestnut filly, by Voorhees—Handsome Florrie, chestnut colt, by Dr. McGee—Leggo—Cattle Kute; Dynamo, chestnut colt, by Solitaire II.—Piquante; Harvester, bay colt, by Solitaire II.—Carnation II.; Holabird, bay colt, by Puryear II.—Eliminetta; and Wheeler, bay colt, by Puryear II.—Annie Buckingham.

Mrs. E. R. Bradley plays the old system of betting on every horse in each race. Beginning at Lexington this spring Mrs. Bradley has wagered $2 on each horse and kept up the system play at Louisville and here. At present she is visiting in the east, and Mr. Bradley, following her wishes, had his commissioner bet for her. On Saturday the "system" was $400 lower up to date, and Mr. Bradley wrote and explained to his wife how futile it was to bet in such a manner and also told her he had discontinued the wagering. On the very next day a horse paying $1,885 won. Now Mr. Bradley is attempting to frame some alibi when he meets his better half.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Went to post at 4:44. At post 4 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving.
GUY FISHER was well back and outrun for the first half, but was taken to the outside while rounding the far turn and, closing up fast and steadily, easily disposed of CLIFF EDGE in the last furlong. The latter ran under slight restraint for the first five furlongs, then took the lead, but tired after disposing of CHESTER KRIM in the last quarter. OLAMABALA closed a big gap and finished with a belated rush. CHESTER KRIM ran a good race and seems in greatly improved form. MEDIATOR showed much speed, but failed to stay the route.
